I appreciate your letter about my New Orleans talk. It received far wider publicity than I had ever expected. I try to speak seldom enough so as not to wear out my welcome with the press and the public.

Also many thanks for your kind words about Foster's illness. We are hoping for the best, but the situation, as you can well appreciate, is very serious.

Let me know when you are planning to come to Washington.

Sincerely,

(Signed) ALLEN W. DULLES
